

Pin the bell on the bicycle

Just as you do with the tail on the donkey in the traditional children's party game place a large picture of the bicycle on the wall. Children would then have to try and pin a cardboard cutout bell on to the right part of the bike while blindfolded. Nearest one wins.

Enlarge the images below or draw your own (or ask the children to draw them)

